MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT : Letter of Complaint [REDACTED]

2. I met with [REDACTED] our recruiter, in my office on 9 August. We reviewed the sequence of events relative to this incident. [REDACTED] was clearly at fault in not replying to [REDACTED] letter of 14 May 1967. [REDACTED] letter of 1 August 1967 is inexcusable and this he clearly admitted and is most apologetic that he permitted a feeling of annoyance to be reflected in his letter. I reprimanded [REDACTED] for his handling of this applicant and he assures me that this will never happen again. While this is a most unfortunate incident it represents an exception to the outstanding recruitment performance by [REDACTED] who is a highly conscientious, energetic recruiter and who turns in far more applicant cases than any other single recruiter. I recommend that we regard this as an unfortunate slip on the part of [REDACTED] who otherwise has rendered an outstanding performance.
